Peanuts, tree nuts, wheat, milk, eggs, soy, fish, shellfish and other food allergens are present in our kitchen. Although we make every effort to avoid cross contact of allergens, we operate in an open kitchen with shared cooking and preparation areas in which any of our ingredients can be present. Because of this, we are not able to guarantee that any menu item is completely allergen free.

2,000 calories a day is used for general nutrition advice, but calorie needs vary. Additional nutrition information is available upon request.

OVER 170 YEARS OF CULINARY TRADITION

In 1849, the Boudin family struck culinary gold. Wild yeasts in the San Francisco air provided their traditional French bread with a unique tang, giving rise to The Original San Francisco Sourdough™. Today, the Boudin family's recipe lives on in the hands and heart of our expert bakers, with a portion of the original mother dough still starting each and every sourdough loaf we make.

From a tiny, old-world bake shop located on San Francisco's Dupont Street to our Flagship property at Fisherman's Wharf, Boudin has evolved to the state-of-the-art facilities and services we operate today – and emerged as San Francisco's oldest continuously operating business since 1849. Though much has changed since our boomtown beginnings, our bread recipe has not.

Thank you for choosing Boudin
